

Eastern Pipistrelle Bat

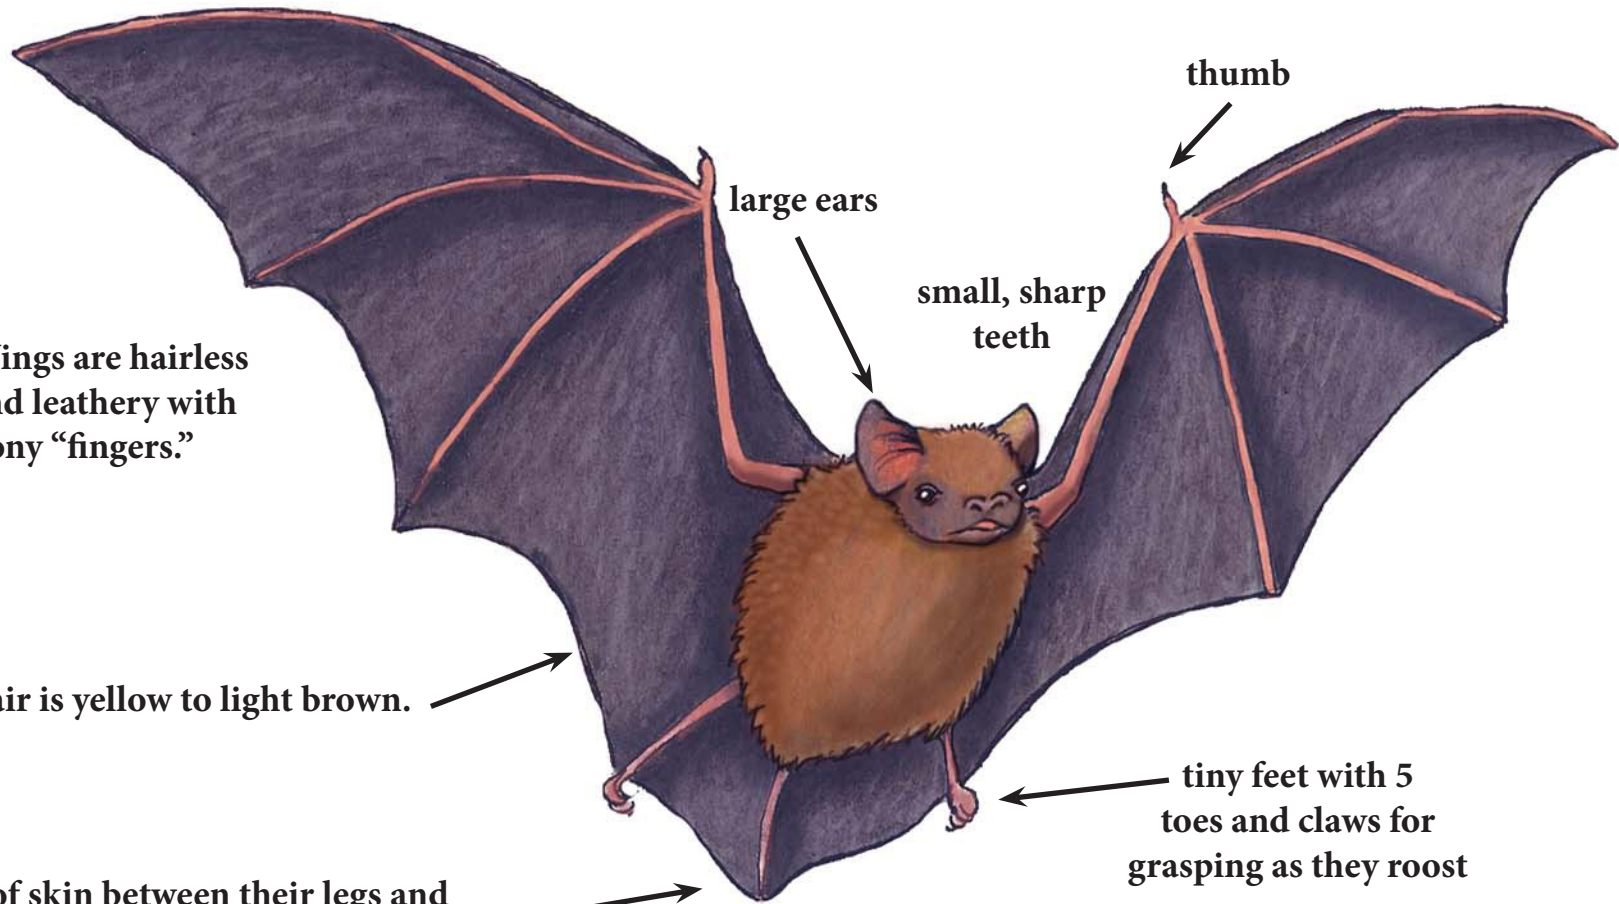

Pipistrellus subflavus

wingspan only
about 8"

Wings are hairless
and leathery with
bony "fingers."

Body hair is yellow to light brown.

Flap of skin between their legs and tail is called the "uropatagium."

large ears

small, sharp
teeth

thumb

tiny feet with 5
toes and claws for
grasping as they roost