

Western Long-eared Myotis Bat

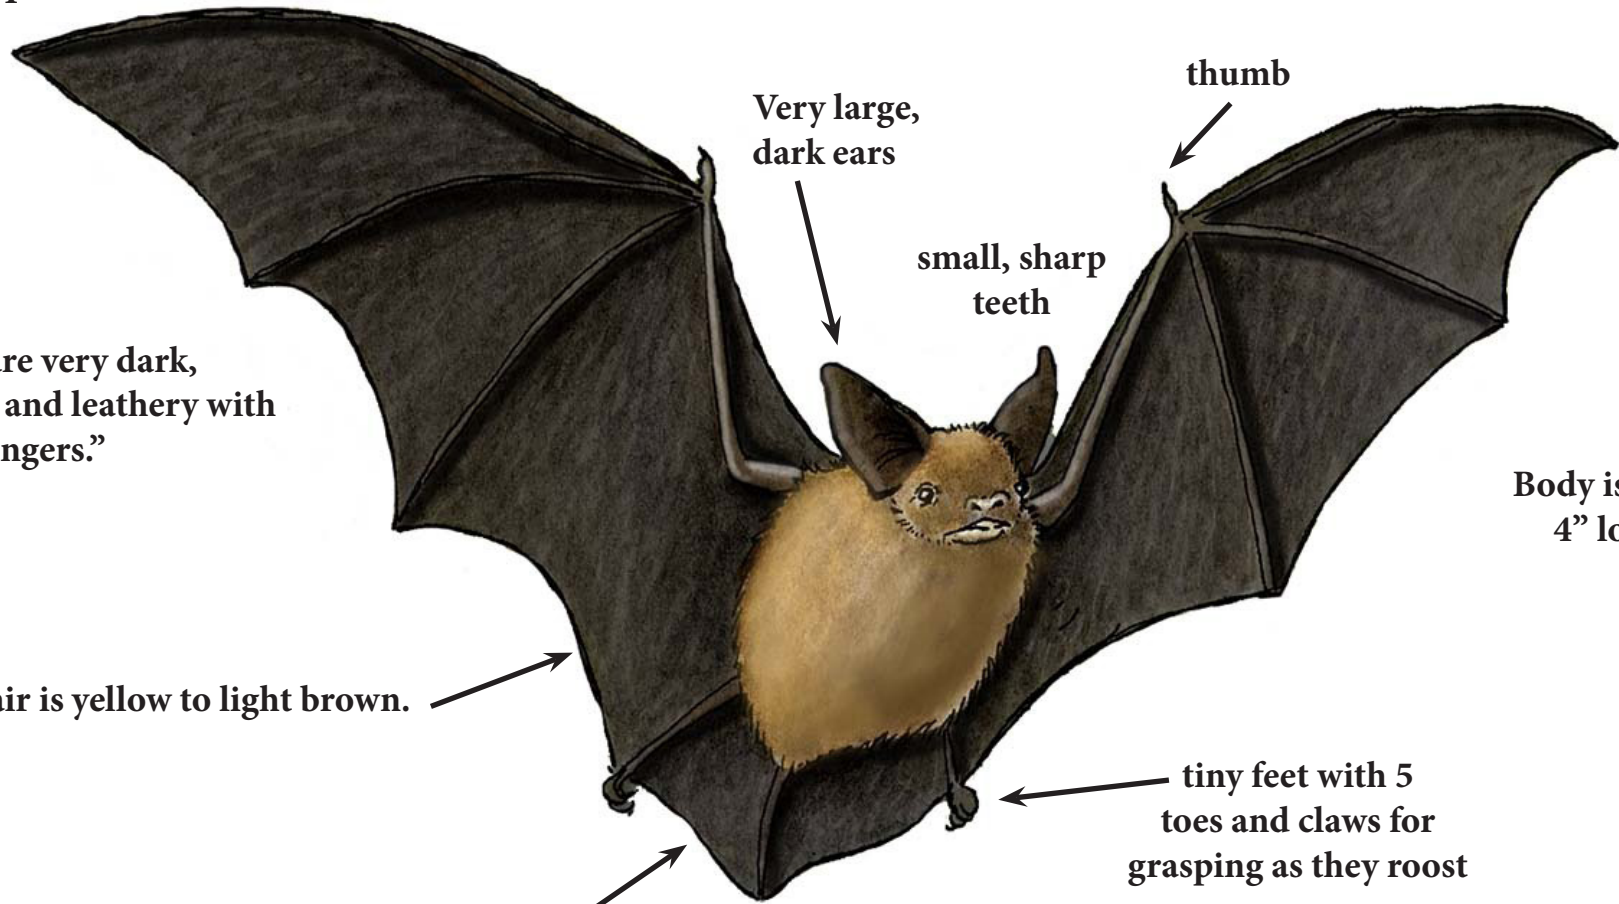

Myotis evotis

wingspan
about 11”

Wings are very dark, hairless and leathery with bony “fingers.”

Body hair is yellow to light brown.

Flap of skin between their legs and tail is called the “uropatagium.”

Very large,
dark ears

small, sharp
teeth

thumb

Body is up to 4” long.

tiny feet with 5
toes and claws for
grasping as they roost