

Lady Slipper (Pink)

Cypripedium acaule

Habitat

They are found in bogs and wet woods especially in pine forests.

Description

It has one flower. It is a pink, hollow pouch with darker pink veins. It has a bare stem with long, large, leaves attached at the bottom. They bloom May through July. Also called, moccasin flower.

Taxonomic Features (Traits) for Identification:

Flower Type: Irregular flower

Flower Color: Pink to white

Leaf Arrangement: Around the base only

Plant Type: Wildflower (Medium - 6-8 inches)

Leaf Type: Long, narrow and entire (smooth edge)

